

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:58; sunset, 5:58.

Vincent Ballinski, 7131 S. Marshfield av., street cleaner, killed by auto of Jos. E. Brown, 7444 Harvard av.

Three men in auto hurled brick through window of Julius Freund's hardware store, 1609 W. 63rd. Escaped. Reason unknown.

Hazel Wilcox, 3607 Ellis Park, dead. Illegal operation. Police seeking man and midwife.

Gilbert's Restaurant, 162 W. Adams, held up. Lone bandit. $15.

Steve Rackich, counterfeiter, has pleaded guilty. 6 mo. in prison. Passed bum nickels on newsboys.

Lynn Butler, 5, 1910 Sherman av., missing from home. Evanston police searching.

John Soanski, 1440 N. Paulina, overcome by gas at breakfast table. Revived. Leaky stove.

Mrs. Mary Capizio, 1326 W. Ohio, to grand jury. Manslaughter. Killed Paul Giottino, with hatchet. Said he attacked her.

Herman Meyer, 816 S. California av., dead. Gas. Out of job.

Mrs. Nellie Wahlen, 3661 Indiana av., started fire with kerosene. Dying from burns.

Several pupils from Bowen high school helped put out blaze in store of John Bolka, 2800 E. 89th.

Mrs. Hazel Carr, 6358 S. Green, dead as result of illegal operation, according to coroner's report. Police seeking midwife.

Several offices in county building to remain open despite fact commissioners declared today holiday.

Samuel Hamilton, arrested as "con" man, accused of theft of $1,500 diamonds from Mrs. Etta McConnell, 4406 Sheridan rd.

"Committee on local transportation sleeping on subway job."—Mayor Harrison.

Case of estate of Jacob Weidemann, gardener, against Mount Hope Cemetery Co., now 29 years old, to be continued again tomorrow.

Case of "Count" Erasmus de Dziubaniuk, arrested because the police thought he had too many wives, continued until March 23 for investigation.

Daniel Roche, 123 W. Ohio, tried suicide. Poison. May recover. Domestic troubles.

Heads of five brotherhoods of railroad men delayed strike question. To make more demands from railroads.

Edward Rivers, 4413 Berkeley av., suicided. Gun. Sickness.

Landon C. Rose, vice-president Central Trust Co., expects to start work soon on $2,000,000 home on Desplaines river at Libertyville.

Mrs. Emily Hutchinson Crane Junkin, who was widow of R. T. Crane, Sr., sued for $15,000 on note by cousin, Harry S. Stewart.

Bill to be introduced in legislature provides for motorcycle corps with Illinois national guards.

Refilling a tobacco jar is in violation of federal law. Federal Judge G. A. Carpenter admits he has broken the law; says he likes that tobacco can.

Fred Schmidt suing Nicholas Naehl, saloonkeeper, for $25,000 for alienation of wife's affections.

Minnesota Motor Speedway Ass'n of Chicago chartered in Delaware. Capital $1,000,000. Promoters won't talk.

Rates on live stock should be advanced because of cost of handling at terminals, shippers told interstate commerce commissioners.

First National Bank of Cleveland filed suit for $300,000 against Clark L. Poole & Co., timber land dealers.

Henry Hein, 6047 Harper av., dead from gun shot wounds received Saturday in Jackson park. Believed work of crazed dopeless dope fiend.

John J. Arnold, vice-president First National Bank, fined $10 for speeding.

Cora V. Johnson, Katherine Bartlett, Eleanor R. Soukup, Ourel Baker